NYMET WALKING GROUP

Four walkers turned up for our walk on July 15th at the village hall carpark. We set off from there and took the road down towards Lapford. We turned off to the right at the left hand bend (bottom of the hill out of Nymet) and walked towards Edgerley. It was a damp, mizzly day but we were wearing suitable waterproof coats and boots. A good walk up the hill warmed us up and when we reached the driveway to Edgerley cottage and house on the right we turned left into a barley field onto the footpath. It was quite wet through the field as the grass on the path was particularly rain sodden. One sensible member of the group had worn his waterproof trousers. The rest of us just got wet legs! No matter we carried on until the path brought us to Kelland Hill continuing downhill to Lapford Cross petrol station. We then walked back up the road to Nymet passing Lower Bridge Farm on our right. We decided to forego the footpath here as we were wet enough already! Someone mentioned it was St Swithin's day so we hoped the myth of forty days of rain was not on the cards!

The next walk is on Monday August 12th 10.30. Meet at the Village Hall Carpark. Anyone is welcome to come along!
