INSPIRING WOMEN

In March, Coldridge WI got moving with a very thought provoking talk about the importance of strength training for women in mid and later life. Personal trainer and soft tissue therapist, Becky Horton, gave us plenty of easy to incorporate ideas about adding life to our years; it was also an eye opener to find out just how many members are secret gym bunnies!

April's will be a meeting of two halves; first, the AGM with committee reports reviewing the old year and looking forward to what's coming up and later, a talk from Coldridge's own Kate Fitch about her work as a Street Pastor. As a group of faith-based volunteers, Street Pastors patrol our communities during the small hours providing care and help to anyone in need. Whether that need arises from an overexuberant night out, homelessness, mental health crisis or wanting a chat, Street Pastors are on hand to provide non-judgmental compassion and aid to those in a vulnerable state. Find out more on Wednesday, 8th April at 7.30pm in the Village Hall about this inspirational organisation.

COLDRIDGE GARDENING CLUB

In March we found out what it takes to be awarded 'National Collection' status, in this case for peonies, when speaker Caroline Stone came. A self-confessed 'peony addict', she virtually toured us around her garden near Launceston and the plant's history. She is also keen to expand her collection, and recounted how some of her lesser known specimens came out of people's gardens and appealed for us all to look in our own back yards. If you think you have a peony worthy of inclusion in a national collection, get in touch with her on: doubleprimroses@gmail.com

We are in for a treat in April. On Monday, 13th April at 7.30pm in the Village Hall, our own Pat Allard will be taking to the floor again talking about how to plan planting for your patch. Pat has spoken before more generally about her allotment nearby, and is now ready to dig deeper (pun intended) about how to get the most out of the growing season. We will be supplementing this talk with a few drinkies and nibbles to make it a social evening as well.

Everyone is welcome to join Coldridge Gardening Club - a family membership is only £15 for the year. Keep an eye out for news of upcoming events on all the usual village channels. If you are not (yet!) a member of the Coldridge Gardening Club, and would like to see what it's all about, please drop us a line on coldridgegardeningclub@ecomail.uk for more details.
